

I would not like to receive calls from any business in my home. They are a lot of different media for companies to use to distribute information on sales, not in my home on the phone. Therefore I put my phone and cell phone on the do not call list. One of the better ideas someone has come up with. I still receive calls from the Indiana State Police but that is okay, sometimes I contribute.